

Eden Berhanu

(206)-775-2242 | eberhanu1@outlook.com | Kent, WA

Objective

Seeking to contribute technical and creative problem-solving skills to innovative work in technology. Highly motivated and detail-oriented Software Engineering graduate, looking to apply learned skills to make a positive impact.

Education

B.S. in Software Engineering

Western Governors University | Graduation: January 2026

- Relevant Coursework: Data Structures & Algorithms, Software Design and Quality Assurance, Version Control, Advanced Java, Back-end Programming, Java Frameworks, Mobile Application Development (Android), Front-End Web Development
- Member of Women in Technology Club

Technical Skills

- Java, XML, JavaScript, TypeScript, HTML5, CSS3, Python, SQL
- Software/Tools: IntelliJ, Android Studio, Spring, Gradle, Maven, VS Code, Git, GitLab, GitHub, AWS Cloud, Angular

Soft Skills

Independent work, Collaborative, Strong Communication skills, Active listening, Attention to detail, Flexible, Reliable

Relevant ExperienceProjects

- Mobile Android App
 - Developed a Vacation Planner app with Java and XML that allows users to save, update and delete vacations.
 - Used the Room persistence library as an abstraction layer over the local SQLite database for local data storage.
 - Automated project builds and dependency management using Gradle.
- Interactive World Map
 - Developed an interactive Angular web app using TypeScript and World Bank API to visualize global data
 - Implemented an SVG map with hover effects for displaying country specific information
 - Utilized Git for version control

Certificates

- AWS Certified Cloud Practitioner
- ITIL Foundation in IT Service Management
- CompTIA Project+
- WGU Front-end Developer
- WGU Back-end Developer